

CHWC April 2025 Newsletter

President's Message

We are coming to the end of another Club year, as hard as that is to fathom. Our bus trips are done until the fall – thank you to Beth and Patti for planning and carrying out a diverse selection of adventures. I can hardly wait to see what the Activities Committee has in store for us next year. Some of the activities will continue for a while longer, please check this newsletter or with Patti Noon for specifics. Fund raising is also winding down with one event occurring in April - the Spring Golf tournament. This will happen on April 4th and is chaired by Claire Lindley and Gail Bockiaro. The tournament is full as I am writing this message, but please check with one of the chairs, as there might be cancellations. Our last Drive Through collection is slated for May 28 from 9:00 to 10:30 am. Look for information on specific needs via E-Blast or check with Judy Stone or Sheri Chancey, the Community and Charity Outreach chairs.

Those of you who attended our March luncheon, were introduced to the slate of Officers running for positions on the 2025-2026 Executive Board. They are Diane Trowbridge and Del Gillispie, Co-Presidents, Madonna Ray, 1st

Vice President, Diane Edwards and Gail Bockiaro, Co-2nd Vice Presidents, Marta Iler and Marcia Schenker, Co-Secretaries, and Barbara Pankosky and Diane Kohm, Co-Treasurers. These ladies will be voted in to office at the April luncheon, as we had no nominations from the floor. The newly elected officers will be installed at our final luncheon of the year in May. We all wish the best to all as they take on the leadership of our club next year. I hope that our membership will continue to support these ladies, as I have been over the years I have served.

Finally, I would like to wish all our members a Happy Easter and Passover. If you are a snowbird heading north for the summer, please travel safely and I look forward to seeing you back again when the weather turns cold. Oh, I almost forgot- Happy Tax Day on April 15th!

Hugs and love ...

Pat Crawley
Co-President

Scholarship News

March is the month when the members of the Scholarship Committee hunker down and devote countless hours to reading the long applications that have been submitted to us by the graduating seniors in Citrus County. Each application is approximately 20 pages long, and a thoughtful analysis of every student is required by each of us in order to report our individual thoughts back to the full committee before final recommendations can be made.

This year we were once again overjoyed to read about so many intelligent, hard-working, and accomplished young people who are planning on continuing their education at a college or university. Our applicants have excelled academically, on the athletic fields, and in leadership roles in their respective schools and communities. The majority are dedicated to community service and making a difference right here in Citrus County.

There are always two thoughts that emerge for us during the month of March: how amazing and unique these students are, and the level of need that exists right next door to us.

One of the things that stood out to us at the most enjoyable and successful Fashion Show event in March was the support we received from the community, both in and out of Citrus County. The list of sponsors and donors was record-breaking, and certainly encouraging, showing us that the community at large is behind us and our efforts to support those that need our help. Bravo!! to the leaders of the event and the women who did the work in the trenches to raise these funds.

Our committee met twice in March to discuss each application thoroughly, and we are excited to present our recommendations to the Finance Advisory Committee on April 5th. After that, the Finance Advisory Committee will make its recommendations to the Board, and we will proudly introduce our winners to you on May 14th at the May Scholarship Luncheon.

This is a very special luncheon, and we encourage you to attend. It will be a most heartwarming experience to meet this group of young people who have already accomplished so much, and who all have hopes and aspirations that we, the Citrus Hills Women's Club, through our hard work, are able to help them achieve.

Marcie Schenker, Kathy Quintin and Nanette Mitchell

The Scholarship Raffle has raised $3,175 so far this year, collecting $555 in donations at the March Luncheon. We once again thank you for your generous contributions. The winner of the $100 raffle drawing at the March Luncheon was KATHY QUINTIN. CONGRATULATIONS, KATHY!

Pets Need Your Help

By donating to the CHWC Paw Pantry program, we can make a difference in the lives of over 100 homebound seniors' with pets. Pet Meals is a 100 percent donation-based and volunteer driven program. Food is not guaranteed and relies on the generosity of the community.

Seniors' would rather go hungry themselves than not feed their pets.

CHWC Paw Pantry Needs:

- Unopened dry or canned dog food
- Unopened dry or canned cat food
- Dog or Cat Treats and Kitty Litter
- Watch for BOGOS at Publix's Pet aisle/ any brand or size.

Please bring to drive-thrus and Pet designated luncheons.

For more Information contact:
Karen Settle 708-205-7037. You can have large food orders delivered directly to Karen's Home from Amazon or Chewy —please let her know.

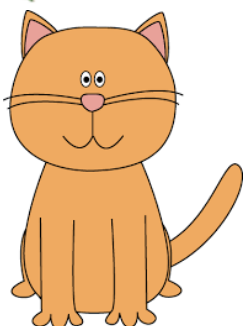

For Your Convenience:

Send food directly to Karen Settle: 1182 N. Hunt Club Dr., Hernando, FL. 34442

Pets are often the only consistent companion many seniors have and are often considered part of the family. Pet food is a big expense.

CHWC Ladies Who Attended the Sunken Garden's Trip

The Citrus Hills Women's Club, Inc. (CHWC) traveled to the beautiful Sunken Gardens on Thursday, March 6th. Sunken Gardens is a sunken botanical paradise amidst a bustling city. As St. Petersburg's oldest living museum, this 100-year-old garden is home to some of the oldest tropical plants in the region. Upon arrival, we were welcomed by the friendly, helpful staff who handed out maps for us to begin our self-guided tour. We strolled through meandering paths, lush with tropical plants from around the world. The grounds are stunning featuring a collection of vibrant flowers, lush greenery and lovely pathways that make for a serene experience. We were charmed by the playful Flamingoes, the talking parrots, turtles and the tranquil Koi fishpond. Butterflies fluttered around adding to the enchanting atmosphere. Our self-guided tour lasted 1 to 1 ½ hours. We enjoyed lunch on our own at several nearby restaurants. After lunch we boarded the bus and headed to Mazzaro's Italian Market (just a 9-minute drive).

Mazzaro's Italian Market has anything you could want or imagine and more! Including but not limited to a fresh coffee bar, wine room, cheese room, deli, homemade pasta and sauces, grocery, butcher and a bakery with homemade pastries. After exploring, shopping and purchasing our goodies we boarded our bus and headed home. An enjoyable day was had by all!

"Life is a Party. Dress for It." A CHWC Fashion Event

Many women over the years have influenced fashion, but none more than Audrey Hepburn. Her iconic looks will define fashion for decades. Audrey loved her pearls and was frequently quoted. Her familiar quote, "Life is a Party. Dress for It." became the focal point for this year's Citrus Hills Women's Club, Inc. (CHWC) annual Fashion Show event. Women were asked to come dressed in what they "loved" to wear and on March 12, 2025 CHWC members came dressed in a variety of styles that represented elegance, simplicity and personal expression.

The Hampton Room at the Citrus Hills Golf and Country Club was reminiscent of "old" Hollywood glamour. Twenty-five dining tables were decorated with a show-stopping centerpiece created by Co Chair Carol Peterman. Black satin covered bottles, dripping in diamonds were topped with black, white and Tiffany Blue sprays of plumes. Tiffany Blue napkins complimented the white tablecloths. The stage was covered with black sheer curtains, backlit with hundreds of tiny sparkling lights. In the center of the curtains was a beautiful poster of Audrey Hepburn, framed by banners with the quote "Life is a Party. Dress for It."

Fashion Show Chairs: Carol Peterman, Diane Edwards, Jackie Huband and Karen Settle

Off to the right gracing the stage were two impeccably dressed mannequins dressed in 1950's style reminding us of the timelessness of fashion.

"Life is a Party. Dress for It."

Every woman attending received a "Swag Bag" filled with Beauty products generously provided by Estee Lauder's representative Denise Manno from the Ulta store located at the Villages.

Anthony's from the Villages supplied the latest Florida clothing trends for viewing. The at capacity filled room gave their full attention to the seven "member" models. From swimwear to resort wear, the clothes featured were comfortable, colorful and perfect for any occasion. Anthony's started in Titusville in 1894 and has been furnishing fashion to Florida women for over 129 years.

The CHWC 2025 Fashion Show Models: Debby Blackie, Aileen Scharl, Del Gillispie, Eileen Sisolak, Judy Hankey, Kay Stegemann and Honey Ragaglia

numerous Gift Baskets filled with sought after items to be raffled off to some lucky winner. Silent Auction possibilities ranged from a Scenic Pontoon ride to a round of 18 Holes of Golf, to a gold ankle bracelet and so much more.

Chairs Carol Peterman, Karen Settle, Jackie Huband and Diane Edwards want to "Thank" their fabulous committee, especially Del Gillispie for her hard work obtaining sponsorships, ads and gift items which contributed to the event's success.

CHWC also wants to recognize and thank our many local donors. This very memorable experience was made possible by these many generous community business partners who heavily contributed items to the Raffles and the Silent Auction. A special acknowledgment to our Platinum Sponsors: Cajun Jimmy's Seafood Seller and Cafe, Bush Home Services- Home Repairs, Bush Home Services- Lawn , Grand Living at Citrus Hills, Integrity Services (Lawn / Pest Control) and Vitus Healthcare, to our Gold Sponsor: Eagle Buick GMC and to our Silver Sponsors: Love Honda and Village Cadillac-Toyota and Seacoast Bank.

The event ended with our Fab Four Restaurant Raffle Drawing. This raffle was made possible by four local gourmet restaurants, Vintage on The 5th, Bayside Kraft Kitchen, Oscar Penn's and Cajun Jimmy's Seafood Seller and Cafe, each donating a $100 Gift card. The raffle alone brought in just under $3,000. Karen Settle whose idea it was for this raffle, asked Patti Noon to draw the winning ticket. Nancy Roberts was more than happy to be the recipient!

This was a successful event, raising an estimated $ 21,134 for

Winner of The Fab Four Restaurant Raffle Drawing—Nancy Roberts (center) with Karen Settle and Carol Peterman

CHWC's charity and scholarship funds. The four Chairs, Carol Peterman, Karen Settle, Jackie Huband and Diane Edwards are grateful to live in such a generous community and belong to a Club that is filled with such giving members. Carol, Karen, Jackie and Diane have co-chaired on numerous events and this one by far has exceeded all their expectations!

March Mah Jongg Fundraiser Results

"Let the Shenanigans Begin"

CHWC Spring Mah Jongg Tournament

"Top of the Morning" to the 148 Mah Jongg players who made their way on March 19th, 2025 to Citrus Hills Golf and Country Club for the "Let the Shenanigans Begin" Spring Mah Jongg Tournament hosted by Citrus Hills Women's Club, Inc. Even though St. Patrick's Day had just past, the women were feeling lucky, and some may even had brought a "Lucky Charm" or two with them, perhaps a four leaf clover or rabbit's foot, to assure good fortune.

Ten "Pots of Gold" laid beneath the 7-foot colorful double rainbow of yellow, red, blue, purple and green. A total of $700 dollars was dispersed in the 10 "Pots". Four pots contained $100 each and 6 pots held $50 each, all hidden beneath a layer of "gold coins" waiting to be claimed by some lucky winners.

At 9:30am the "Let the Shenanigans Begin" Mah Jongg Tournament officially began. After a fast paced two hours of play, four winners were announced. Cash prizes ranging from $100 to $25 were awarded to the top four players. Winners were 1st Place: Ginny Hollis, 2nd Place: June Dunn, 3rd Place: Lenore Winston and 4th Place: Joy Canning. This was a big Shenanigan twist this year of having "morning" winners and "afternoon" winners.

During the break between the two sessions of play, a magically delicious lunch of either a traditional Irish fare of corn beef and cabbage was offered or an oriental chicken salad.

Lots of "Blarney" talk was expressed as the women discussed the "highs" and "lows" of morning play. A hush fell over the room as afternoon play began, 37 tables of women grew silent except for "Mah Jongg" excitedly being called out.

At three o'clock, the games ended, scores went to be tallied. While waiting for the winners to be determined, Chair Diane Edwards, dressed in a gray tee shirt with "Shenanigans University Malarkey Department" emblazoned across the front, announced the "pots of gold" winners as well as Share the Wealth and Mah Jongg set winners.

Finally, the moment the ladies were waiting for to happen. The four afternoon high scoring winners split the $250 "pot" with the highest score receiving $100. The winners were: 1st Place: Peg Fowler, 2nd Place: Sheila Reagan, 3rd Place tied: Marcia Bye and Janie Keane

All too quickly the day was over. The "Let the Shenanigans Begin" Mah Jongg Tournament was a very successful event raising over $4100 toward the CHWC charity and scholarship funds.

Chair Diane Edwards thanked her committee for their hard work and thanked everyone who attended and participated in the "Shenanigans". Everyone left feeling happy and lucky for a day spent with friends.
